“2020 Vision”

In this international “Year of Biodiversity”, and in the 20th Birthday year for Tree Wardens in Britain, this forum will celebrate the work of Tree Wardens over the last 20 years and look forward to the issues that trees will face over the next 20 years.

Speakers include:

Paul Read—Suffolk Traditional Orchard Survey
Rob Wolton—Hedgelinek
Jon Stokes – The Tree Council
David Mitchell—Tree Officer MSDC
Ed Parker—Woodland Trust

Talks include:

Orchards – Paul Read will talk about East Anglia’s amazing ‘Heritage’ of Orchards. He will bring along old varieties of fruit to identify and discuss.
Britain’s Largest Nature Reserve – Britain’s has an amazing landscape of hedges, whose total area make this habitat the largest ‘nature reserve’ in Britain. In this talk Rob will show the value to the countryside of hedges, their management and history.
20:20 Vision – Over the last 20 Years, Tree Wardens have been involved in shaping the local agenda for trees in communities throughout Britain. In the next 20 Years their role will be even more important and this talk will explore the issues for trees in Britain and how Tree Wardens can make a difference.
Redlingfield Wood – The wood, history, biodiversity and management.

After lunch a visit to Redlingfield Wood (next to the Red Feather Club):
Demonstrations will include: Tree felling and extraction by horse, Green woodworking demonstration. Guided walk around the wood, Chainsaw sculpture demonstration.

Please bring appropriate footwear and outdoor clothing
