

SUFFOLK COASTAL DISTRICT COUNCIL

RADAR TRANSMITTER BLOCK, BAWDSEY MANOR BAWDSEY

Grid Reference	TM 341 383
List Grade	II*; Registered Park and Garden Grade II
Conservation Area	No
Description	Concrete and brick Radar Block, 1937. Site of pioneering radar development
Suggested/Favoured Use	Radar museum
Condition	Fair
Priority for Action	C
Reason for Risk	Metal reinforcement is rusting causing concrete to spall. Lack of general maintenance.
Owner/Agent	Mr B Toettcher, Bawdsey Manor, Bawdsey, Woodbridge IP12 3AZ
Current Availability	Not known
Notes	One of a number of structures on the site linked to radar development. The building is home to the Bawdsey Radar Group which has an exhibition of Radar development in the building, which is open to the public on certain days throughout the year. The Group have recently had an appraisal carried out by consultants to identify the most beneficial options for the future of the Transmitter Block. On English Heritage's Heritage at Risk Register 2008.
Entry onto BAR	2000
Contact	Robert Scrimgeour (01394) 444616

