

SUFFOLK COASTAL DISTRICT COUNCIL

MARTELLO TOWER 'Z' ALDERTON

Grid Reference	TM 361 419
List Grade	II and Scheduled Ancient Monument
Conservation Area	No
Description	Martello Tower. Built c.1810-12 as part of defence line against threat of invasion by Napoleon. Brick with ashlar dressings. Three storeys. Teardrop shaped plan.
Suggested/Favoured Use
Condition	Poor
Priority for Action	C
Reason for Risk	Outer brick skin is peeling away, leaving about 40% of inner structure exposed.
Owner/Agent	Exors of D R Mann. Agent P J Mann, High House Bawdsey, Woodbridge IP12 3AW
Current Availability	Not for sale
Notes	The owners are investigating potential users or uses for the building in order to facilitate essential repair/conservation works. Owners also looking into the possibility of not cultivating the area around the Tower. On English Heritage's Heritage at Risk Register 2008.
Entry onto BAR	1997
Contact	Robert Scrimgeour (01394) 444616

